Docket No. 305426

LC No. 10-035084-FC

Presiding Judge

Judges

The Court orders that the motion to remand is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. The motion is DENIED to the extent that defendant asks this Court to require the trial court to resentence him at this point, but the motion is GRANTED to the extent that this case is REMANDED for the trial court to consider defendant's challenges to the scoring of offense variables 5 and 9 of the sentencing guidelines. We leave to the trial court's initial determination whether to conduct an evidentiary hearing on remand and what relief, if any, to grant if it concludes that either offense variable was misscored.

Defendant shall initiate the proceedings on remand within 14 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. The Court retains jurisdiction and the time for proceeding with the appeal in this Court shall begin to run upon issuance of an order in the trial court that disposes of the remand proceedings. Defendant shall file with this Court a copy of any motion and supporting brief filed in the trial court within 14 days after the Clerk's certification of this order. Defendant shall also file with the Clerk of this Court copies of all orders entered on remand within 14 days after entry. The trial court shall decide the matter within 56 days of the Clerk's certification of this order. The trial court shall make findings of fact and a determination on the record. The trial court shall cause a transcript of any hearing on remand to be prepared and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings.

Defendant may file a supplemental brief pertaining to the issues raised on remand within 21 days after entry of the trial court's order deciding the matter or 21 days after the transcript of the hearing is filed, whichever is later. Plaintiff may file a brief in response.

The time for proceedings with the appeal shall begin to run 14 days after the date this order is certified if a motion to initiate the proceedings on remand is not filed in the trial court within that 14-day period.
